

desk from M. B. Colt and S. T. Ambler. Gifts such as these are what are making the library a success.

The event of the season will be a grand ball given by some of the society ladies, for the benefit of the library, on Thanksgiving evening at the Oliver. In connection with the ball, a lunch will be served by a committee of association ladies, the proceeds of which will be added to the library fund.